University of North Carolina

Celebration of the Centennial Anniversary of the Opening of the University

Memorial Hall, June 5, 1895.

I. Old Hundred.

(The audience will please join in the singing.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heav'nly host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

II. Prayer.

III. Centennial Song, by Mrs. C. P. Spencer.

(The audience will please join in the singing.)

IV. Oration: The Old University, by Alfred Moore Waddell.

V. The Centennial Ode, by James D. Lynch,

VI. Oration: The New University, by Adolphus Hill Eller.

VII. Centennial Sonnet, by Henry Jerome Stockard.

At the close of the exercises the Alumni and invited guests will assemble in the Gymnasium to partake of the Centennial Alumni Banquet. Tickets may be had at the door, or in the Bursar's office, South Building, price $1.

At 8 o'clock p. m. the Centennial Celebration will be resumed in Memorial Hall.

Addresses will be made by Henry Armand London on "The University During the War," and Stephen Beauregard Weeks on "The University Alumni in the War."

There will be a roll-call of the classes that have graduated from the University; and, as each class is called, its members will respond by going upon the platform and taking seats.

Special exercises will be conducted by several classes, as they are called.

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2013

http://archive.org/details/universityofnort1895cele